

Nice to meet you!

Brittney Lintick received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in painting from the Alberta College of Art and Design in 2007. She has exhibited work in both Canada and the US, and received an Award of Excellence from the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour.

community art
Courses for families • children • teens • adults

Interested in learning more about watercolor workshops at In-Definite Arts?

Join our mailing list to find out more about course registration starting this Fall!

In addition to her personal art practice, which Brittney continues to develop in Calgary Alberta, Brittney is also interested in art projects within the community. She has worked as an art instructor with Studio C and has also facilitated a watercolour workshop in Yellowknife, NWT. Brittney is currently working as a Project Facilitator for a new project called ArtRecruits; a program that uses art as a medium to develop employability skills for individuals working toward mental health balance.

Did you know...

In-Definite Arts' Community Arts classes are taught by fully trained, locally - practicing Calgary artists?