

Nice to meet you!

Jamie McDonald Gray is a BFA graduate of the glass program at the Alberta College of Art and Design where she focused her energies on sculptural and kiln-formed glass of a narrative nature.

community art
Courses for families • children • teens • adults

Interested in learning more about glass workshops at In-Definite Arts?

Join our mailing list to find out more about course registration starting this Fall!

Jamie lives in Calgary, where she has been a glass craftsman for almost 20 years. Her work can be found in collections in Canada, the United States, Britain, Korea and Japan. She is a guest teacher in glassblowing and kiln-forming studios and also operates a kiln-forming studio for her own work. In her capacity as a board member of the Glass Art Association of Canada and the coordinator of the Calgary Warm Glass Guild, Jamie is a proud supporter, promoter, and networker of glass as a fine-craft medium. Her support of Art In The Park in Fish Creek Provincial Park underlines a commitment to see more art in free, all-access, public spaces.

Did you know...

In-Definite Arts' Community Arts classes are taught by fully trained, locally - practicing Calgary artists?