

Youth Glass Workshop Registration Form

Youth Art Programs at In-Definite Arts inspire a love for learning and art and are instructed in a more open studio environment that will encourage greater freedom. During a five week session in glass, teens will receive instruction in a variety of glass-working techniques, including but not limited to: 1) the basics of fusing and cutting glass, 2) wire-bending and decorative soldering, and 3) building in 3D. Projects produced during this session might include: 1) single-layered fused glass plates, 2) wire and glass framed locker mirrors, 3) glass encased photo frames and 4) original candle boxes.

Supply costs (in addition to the $25 registration fee) for this course are $40, which covers the costs of four glass projects. Class-size is limited to 6 to allow for adequate instruction and supervision.

Dates of Programs: Session 1: Monday, September 27 – November 1 (no class Oct 11)
 Session II: Monday, November 8 – December 6

Location: In-Definite Arts, 8038 Fairmount Drive SE, Calgary
